

It won't change . Not that they don't want to . Hands are tied.
Get those out of the offices . Handy number close to retirement.

Same in every government job.

Be it ambulance, garda , fire or public jobs.

People are put away for a handy number , increase in pension. And retire with less hassle.

If I was offered it, I won't refuse it either.

It's the way life has been handed down through the years...
