

██████████

I never saw so many Gardai as the time I went to Waterford court to answer someone else's speeding charge. Court time is a massive waste of Garda time. Surely the law should be amended so they only attend court in exceptional circumstances. Great to have them on the beat more, liaising with the public.